

Councilmember Kenyan R. McDuffie and the D.C. Council's Committee on the Judiciary

Announce a Public Hearing

Beyond 100 Homicides: Violent Crime in the District of Columbia

The D.C. Council wants to hear from YOU!

What: On August 22, 2015, the 100th homicide of the year was committed in the District of Columbia. These homicides and other violent crimes have devastated families and communities across the city. At the hearing, the Committee will hear from government and public witnesses on the steps that the District is taking to prevent and respond to violent crime, address the underlying causes, and explore best practices and community partnerships.

When: Wednesday, September 16, 2015, 5:00 p.m.

Where: Council Chambers, Room 500,
John A. Wilson Building, 1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.

To testify: Please email kmitchell@dccouncil.us or call (202) 724-8028.